To Whomsoever It May Concern

This is to certify that Navya Gupta has been volunteering with CRY – Child Rights and You from June to July 2023. During her period of volunteering with us, she worked with us for the Children for Children campaign. She undertook the following projects during her term at CRY:

1. Social Media Advocacy : Participated in an online and onground campaign to raise awareness on the issue of Child Labour. This project was a part of a National Campaign by CRY on the occasion of the World Day against Child Labour.
2. Research : Conducted an extensive research on the crisis of children in labour, laws around it and the impact it has on the future of young children in India.
3. Fundraising : She, along with her team raised Rs.3,50,000 to support our project intervention area working for enrollment and retention of children in schools.

She also attended masterclasses and trainings from child rights experts which equipped her with the knowledge, skills, and networks needed to address the issue of child labour effectively. It enabled her to play an active role in preventing child labor, advocating for change, and promoting a more equitable and just society for all children.

Through her dedication, hard work, and skills in fundraising, research, and social media advocacy, Navya Gupta has proven their commitment to making a positive impact on society and standing up against children in labour.
